Understanding Certifications and Disclosures

A certification is a submission type which contains a confirmation of your institutional responsibilities, validation that the information is correct, and if applicable, or one or more disclosures.

A disclosure is a single record, indicating the external organization, institution, or entity, along with information about the nature of the relationship such as, any value, payments, time spent providing services, or activities conducted. Disclosures are always created, updated, and reviewed within the context of the certification.

There are three types of certifications in the OAIR system: Annual Certifications, Research Initiated Updates, and Disclosure Updates.

- Annual Certifications – a certification that satisfies the university’s requirement that the designated discloser population must update their outside activities and interests at least annually. These certifications are typically created and submitted during a school’s annual disclosure period but may also be created outside of that time period as needed. Your school’s COI administrators will create an annual certification for you when it is required.

- Research Initiated Updates – a certification that satisfies the university’s requirement for investigators on certain sponsored research projects to disclose their outside activities and interests. These certifications may be created for funding proposals and/or projects at an award stage and are always created automatically based on project information received in OAIR from GMAS.

- Disclosure Updates – a certification that is typically created when a discloser has new information to report about their outside activities and interests outside the annual disclosure period or outside of research project-related requirements. Note: Disclosure Update certifications are the only type that you are able to create yourself.

When you are required to complete a certification according to University and school policies, you will receive a notification from the system. This notification will include a link to the certification for you to complete.
If you need to update your disclosures because you have new activities or interests or updates to previously disclosed activities or interests, see the instructions for Updating Disclosures below.

For more information on the University’s policies on reporting outside activities and interests, see the Office of the Vice Provost for Research’s website.

Accessing a Certification

You may want to go to a specific certification workspace to view or update its contents, submit it for review, review it, or take other actions.

To view a certification workspace, click the certification name when you find it in a list of submissions.

To find a list that includes the certification name:

Certification Overview

Completing a certification is done by entering information into a series of online forms. The forms may contain required information, identified by a red asterisk (*). You cannot proceed without providing that information. The simplest approach to complete your certification is to follow the forms in order, answering the questions and clicking Continue to save your information and move to the next form. When you reach the end of the series of forms, click the Exit button to return to the protocol workspace.

To start your certification:

1. From the system notification you received, click on the certification link or click on the link to the certification from the system Dashboard.
2. In the Certification workspace, click Edit Disclosures on the left.
3. In each form, fill in the applicable boxes, answer the questions, and attach documents, if appropriate.
4. Click Continue to move to the next form.
5. Use the navigation menu on the left-hand side of the page to go to a specific section. You can collapse this menu by clicking the ≪ button, or if it is collapsed, click ≫ to expand it.
6. To save or exit the SmartForm at any time, click on “Save” and “Exit” button in the lower right of the page. Exit will take you to that certification’s workspace.

7. When you reach the final form, click Save & Exit or, if you are ready to submit, follow the instructions in the Submitting a Certification section below.

You can continue to edit the certification until you submit it for review.

What to Include in the Certification

The SmartForm is a series of web forms where you can input specific information about your activities and interests. The following sections describe what information should go into each space of the SmartForm.

Note: While you are completing your certification, you can access training and education information, instructions on what to include, and definitions and terms at any time by visiting the Office of the Vice Provost for Research’s OAIR webpage or through the links available from the Help menu in the top right corner of the SmartForm.

Certifications that are complete remain in the system and are available on the All Submissions tab. For more information on accessing these certifications, see the Accessing a Certification section.

Information you provide via a certification SmartForm can be updated any time you complete a new certification. While a certification is in a draft or review status, information on the certification workspace will reflect the most up-to-date information about your activities and interests. Once the certification has transitioned to a complete status, the tab displaying disclosure details is no longer present on the certification workspace.

To view a certification and the associated disclosure information as it was at the time of submission/review, you should view the Certification Snapshot. The snapshot includes the SmartForm instructions, questions, and your responses from the time review was completed, including any changes.
you made during the review process if clarifications were requested. The snapshot is available on the Summary tab of the certification workspace.

2. On your profile page, click the Access Legacy Certifications link. Note: This link will only display if you have legacy certifications.
3. A new tab will open listing your certifications from fCOI and/or HMS OAR. Click on the link to the Certification Snapshot to view the full report from fCOI or OAR.

Updating Disclosures

If you need to report new activities and interests or update existing activity and interest details, the steps you will need to take in the system will depend on whether you have certifications and disclosures that are currently under review.

If you have a certification currently in review:

You will not be able to edit that certification to add disclosures or update any disclosures that you added or modified when you originally submitted the certification. If you have new information to add or other changes to make, contact the OAIR Help Desk or your school’s contact.

Note: If you have a certification in review and you are completing another certification at the same time, you will not be able to edit any disclosures that you added or modified on the certification in review. In the new certification, you may only add new disclosures or edit previously reviewed disclosures.

If you do not have any certifications currently in review:

You must create a Disclosure Update certification to report new activities and interests or update existing activity and interest details.

To create a Disclosure Update:

1. From the OAIR Submission page, click the Update Disclosures button.
2. In the Create My Certification pop-up, add a brief description of why you are updating your disclosures. Note: This information will be added to the Additional Information page of the Disclosure Update certification SmartForm.

3. Click OK to finish creating your Disclosure Update certification.

4. Proceed to edit your certification and submit it as described above.

It is also possible to create a Disclosure Update from your Profile page. Clicking on the Create My Certification link on your Profile page will take you through the same certification creation steps described above, as long as you do NOT have another certification already in review. If you click on this link and you do have another certification in review, the system will send a notice to your school’s COI staff requesting that they allow you to make updates. They will need to respond to your request to allow you to edit your certification in review before you can make updates.

Note: If you currently have a certification in review, the Update Disclosures option will not be available. If you have new information to add or other changes to make, contact the OAIR Help Desk or your school’s contact.
